

u3a Nottinghamshire

Introduction

The Nottinghamshire Network of u3as is a federation of u3as that have joined together to support each other in the promotion of informal learning and the cultural and social development of their members. The inaugural meeting was held in January 2009.

The u3a is an amazing organisation. The word 'university' in this context is used in its original sense of people coming together to learn. In the UK it has been running since 1982 but is part of an international organisation begun in France in the 1970s. Membership is increasing rapidly, as is the number of u3as. The u3a is a self-help organisation offering older people no longer in fulltime employment the opportunity of lifelong learning within a friendly and sociable framework. Each u3a acts autonomously but is affiliated to the Third Age Trust that is the national representative body providing a wide range of services to the u3as.

What do u3as do?

Within each u3a is a selection of Interest Groups representing the interests of the members of that u3a. Many common interest groups exist in most u3as, while some unusual interest groups exist in just a few. This illustrates the individual nature of each u3a.

Interest groups are self-managed and self-funded. They draw upon the knowledge, skills and experience of their members to prepare and deliver a programme of 'work' to their members. The range of interests is very wide: art and music, both practical and appreciation, foreign languages, literature and poetry, creative writing, science and technology, history, both local and national, gardening, walking, computing, craft, card and board games, cycling, dancing of all sorts, bowling and genealogy to name but some.

These activities take place in an informal, supportive and social atmosphere where learning is undertaken for its own sake, without constraints of syllabus and examination.

What does the Network do?

The Nottinghamshire u3a Network was established to enable cooperation between u3as and the provision of support across the county and also to enable the launch of new u3as. Since it began in 2009 many new u3as have been started and more are planned. There have also been workshops held for committee members to learn from one another's experience and expertise and another to establish a group of mentors who are available to work with officers in new u3as and anyone else in need of support.

There is also a North Nottinghamshire Neighbourhood Group (NNG) that organises joint social events between participating u3as.
